<The Bridge Clinic awarded Ambassador of Goods from Greater Goods Program>

The Bridge Clinic, a full-service, nonprofit veterinary clinic is thrilled to be awarded as Ambassador of the Greater Goods. After a 6 month review and application process, the Greater Goods representative has announced being part of this global list of recipients.

Greater Good Charities launched the GOODS Program distributing food, essential supplies, clothing, housewares, toys, and more to pets and people in need across the world. Formerly known as Rescue Bank, GOODS Program “has a strategic and holistic approach to address this growing demand to efficiently help more people and pets in crisis.”

The Bridge Clinic’s Executive Director, Michele Miller, is honored to be awarded as a qualified and approved Ambassador, who will ensure GOODS will reach the supplies to pets and families that are in need.

For those that would like to apply to be part of the GOODS Program, please see the Application page here.

ABOUT THE BRIDGE CLINIC

The Bridge Clinic, a PetSmart Charities grantee, has two locations (Bensalem and Philadelphia, PA) and is on a mission to bridge the gap to provide quality, full-service veterinary care to enrich the community and keep pets with the families who love them.
